

Contents

https://doi.org/10.7592/Incantatio2019_8

Introduction
Svetlana Tsonkova	7
https://doi.org/10.7592/Incantatio2019_8_Introduction
“The Flying Charm: To Cologne in the Wine Cellar. On the History of a Scholarly Legend”	9
Willem de Blécourt
https://doi.org/10.7592/Incantatio2019_8_Blecourt
“Wicked Dreams, Teary Eyes, and Salty Noses: Elvish Pathologies and Folkloric Exorcisms from Medieval Germanic Europe”	29
Karel Fraaije
https://doi.org/10.7592/Incantatio2019_8_Fraaije
“Angels, Thieves and Narratives: A Case of Latvian Thief Binding Charms”	59
Toms Kencis
https://doi.org/10.7592/Incantatio2019_8_Kencis
“Medicine and Magic During the English Witch-trials: Negotiating legality between religion and practice”	77
Annabel Macpherson
https://doi.org/10.7592/Incantatio2019_8_Macpherson
“Fear, Superstition and Bargaining: A Curse as a Threat in Old Norse Literature”	90
Anna Solovyeva
https://doi.org/10.7592/Incantatio2019_8_Solovyeva
Why Is It Essential to Study Verbal Magic from Witch Trials?	113
Emese Ilyefalvi
https://doi.org/10.7592/Incantatio2019_8_Ilyefalvi

https://doi.org/ 10.7592/Incantatio2019_8_BookReviews

Eleonora Cianci, The German Tradition of the Three Good Brothers Charm, Göppingen: Kümmerle Verlag, 2013 by Nicholas M. Wolf)

Vilmos Keszeg, ed., Rontók, gyógyítók, áldozatok - Történetek és élettörténetek (Cursers, Healers, Victims – Tales and Life Stories), Kolozsvár: Erdélyi Múzeum-Egyesület, 2012 by Svetlana Tsonkova

Sisinieva legenda v fol'klornyh i rukopisnyh tradizijah Blizhnego Vostoka, Balkan i Vostochnoj Evropy. Moskva: Indrik, 2017. // The Sissinius legend in the folklore and handwritten traditions of Near East, Balkans and Eastern Europe. Moscow: Indrik, 2017 by Anna Solovyeva

CONFERENCE REPORT

https://doi.org/ 10.7592/Incantatio2019_8_Report

140

by Svetlana Tsonkova